Coffee Kit

Not sure what to talk about on your #300Cups coffee date? Try these conversation starters.

• Where do you see God at work at this time in your life?

• What do you love about ministry? What drives you crazy?

• What are your dreams for your ministry? What would it take for those dreams to come true?

• What’s the greatest challenge you face in your ministry? Are there ways that colleagues could help in that challenge?

• What needs do you see in our community? How is your church already working to meet those needs? What would it take to make a stronger impact?

• What do you cherish about your tradition? What do you wish could be changed?

• What does Christian unity mean to you? Are there ways that we can make our unity in Christ more visible?

• What should I know about you in order to be a better friend and colleague to you?

• How can I pray for you?
